FAREWELL

Farewell, dear old M. H. S.
We'll soon be leaving you.
We've worn your colors for years
And have always served you true.

'Tis our wish while we are parting
To give thanks and praise to all,
And leave our sincere good wishes
To our schoolmates in these halls.

Although we are very excited
We sometimes hide a tear,
For deep within our hearts
Lie memories sweet and dear.

In September 1945 seventy-three of us formed a caravan to explore the Vast. Vast drew us a map (schedule) to help us. Vast informed us that there were several gold nuggets in our struggle for gold nuggets.

Being unfamiliar with this cold country, we went with Doris Spitzer to help us with our supplies, needing faith in our leader. Starting out with high hopes of finding gold, through carelessness had failed to find it. However, we survived the ridiculous journey. At rest sixty-seven of us were prepared.

Returning to our caravan for the winter, we had traveled far and learned much. We were to succeed in the fulfillment of our mission. His assistant, Nancy Chestnut was
